- ! The policy will contain an Excess or Deductible, being the part of a claim you are responsible for.
- ! The policy will contain financial limits on the maximum values we insure.
- ! The policy includes a schedule which lists countries where an additional premium in respect of war and strikes risks may be payable.
- ! When the equipment is at an operational site all reasonable safety and security precautions must be taken and all security devices available to you must be operational when the site is unattended.
- ! Your policy may contain other restrictions, for example where your own vehicles must be parked overnight - please refer to your policy documentation.

Where am I covered?

- ✓ Your equipment is usually covered worldwide, any variation of this will be shown in the policy.

What are my obligations?

- You must provide us with honest, accurate and complete information – whether you are taking out, renewing or making changes to your policy.
- You must observe and fulfil the terms and conditions of your policy as failure to do so could affect your cover.
- You must pay the premium.
- You should inform us without delay of any material changes to your risk. If you do not inform us about a change it may affect any claim you make or could result in your insurance being invalid. Following a change we may need to apply additional terms and conditions, which you must observe, or require you to pay an additional premium. You may also need to take action, if so we will advise you.
- In the event of a claim, we must be notified as soon as possible and you should contact your insurance broker or any nominated claims handling company. You should take all reasonable steps to minimise the loss and ensure that all responsible parties (for example the carrier) are held liable for the loss or damage.

When and how do I pay?

- Typically, annually at inception. Your premium may be subject to adjustment on expiry, based on a declaration of actual values.

When does the cover start and end?

- Typically, the policy is for a period of 12 months commencing on the date stated in the policy schedule.

How do I cancel the contract?

- The policy includes provision for cancellation by either party giving 30 days' notice. Shorter periods apply to war, strikes, riots and civil commotions risks. You can give notice at any time by contacting your insurance broker.
