1 Law and Jurisdiction

Unless otherwise specified in the Schedule, this insurance is subject to English law and practice and to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts sitting in London.

2 Utmost Good Faith

Insurance is a contract of the utmost good faith, and if this is not observed by you, we may be entitled to avoid the policy.

3 Material Facts

The information provided in a proposal form or otherwise, by or on behalf of the Insured, forms the basis of this contract.

If at any time after inception of this insurance there is a material change in your business you must advise Underwriters, who reserve the right to amend the rates, terms and conditions of this insurance.

If you are in any doubt as to whether this insurance meets your needs, you should seek independent advice from an insurance professional.

4 Cancellation

This insurance may be cancelled by Underwriters or the Insured giving 30 days' notice in writing, to take effect from midnight on the date of issue.

But, if the premium or any instalment (including under a credit agreement) is not paid by you, then this insurance will be cancelled immediately and no return of premium will be allowed.

5 Non-Contribution

This insurance does not cover liability, expense, loss or damage that is insured by or would, but for the existence of this insurance, be insured by any other existing policy or policies; except in respect of any additional sum beyond the amount which would have been payable under such policy or policies had this insurance not been effected.

6 Insurance Premium Tax

Underwriters will calculate the tax liability of the Insured, who agrees to pay all amounts due.

Late notification by Underwriters of tax due as a result of de minimis rules being exceeded or any other reason will not reduce or negate the liability of the Insured to pay the tax.

7 Declaration and Adjustment

For the purposes of premium adjustment, the Insured is bound to declare all revenues and other figures on which premium is based within the time limit specified in the Schedule.

If this Policy requires periodic declarations, then the Insured shall maintain an accurate record of all revenues and other figures on which premium is based and shall make such records available to Underwriters for inspection at any reasonable time.

If declarations are not made within the period specified in the Schedule, then, where applicable, a surcharge on the deposit premium will be made based on estimates given; but, this will not negate the requirement for the Insured to make such declarations.

Subject to the conditions, restrictions and exclusions herein or endorsed hereon, and in connection with your occupation as specified in the Schedule, we will indemnify you up to the limits specified in the Schedule:

It is a condition precedent to your right to indemnity under this insurance that:

1 Conditions of Business

you must during the period of this insurance continuously trade under the trading conditions identified in the Schedule or such other conditions as may be approved in writing by us;

and you must take all reasonable steps to ensure that such conditions are incorporated into all contracts entered into by you with your customers and (as the case may be) subcontractors;

2 Due Diligence

you must act with due diligence, taking reasonable precautions for the safety of the property and to ensure that the incidence and effect of any claim are minimised;

for the avoidance of doubt, but without prejudice to the generality of this provision:

you must maintain all vehicles and equipment in an efficient and roadworthy condition;

you must only use vehicles that are fit to carry any particular load;

you must ensure that you have access to an adequate supply of fuel for the vehicle or any refrigeration machinery, to complete the intended journey or custody period;

5 Subcontractors

you must ensure that all subcontractors

- 1) are fully insured and agree in writing to fully indemnify you for any loss, damage, liability or expense, and are financially able to do so if such insurance does not respond to any claim; and
- 2) do not accept a lesser liability than you;

Nevertheless each and every Insured agrees that they shall each be jointly and severally liable for any monies due under this insurance even though there may otherwise be deemed to be separate insurances.

Limits of Liability

Notwithstanding the number of parties who may claim under this insurance, the total amount payable, including interest and legal costs and expenses, in respect of all claims arising out of any event shall not exceed such amount as would be payable if there were one party constituting the Insured.

3 Conduct

We will not indemnify you to the extent that your deliberate or reckless conduct increases the degree of risk.
